Visit London

London Tourism Office

2026-10-30

Welcome to London, a city where centuries of history sit side by side with modern life. Whether you're wandering along the Thames, exploring world-class museums, or simply enjoying a pint in a cosy pub, you'll find that there is something for every traveller around each corner.

Five sights to start with

1. British Museum
2. Natural History Museum
3. Tate Modern
4. National Gallery
5. Tower of London

Figure 1: The glass roof of the Great Court above the Reading Room at the British Museum

British Museum, Great Court. Photo: Mike Peel (www.mikepeel.net), CC BY-SA 4.0, via Wikimedia Commons.

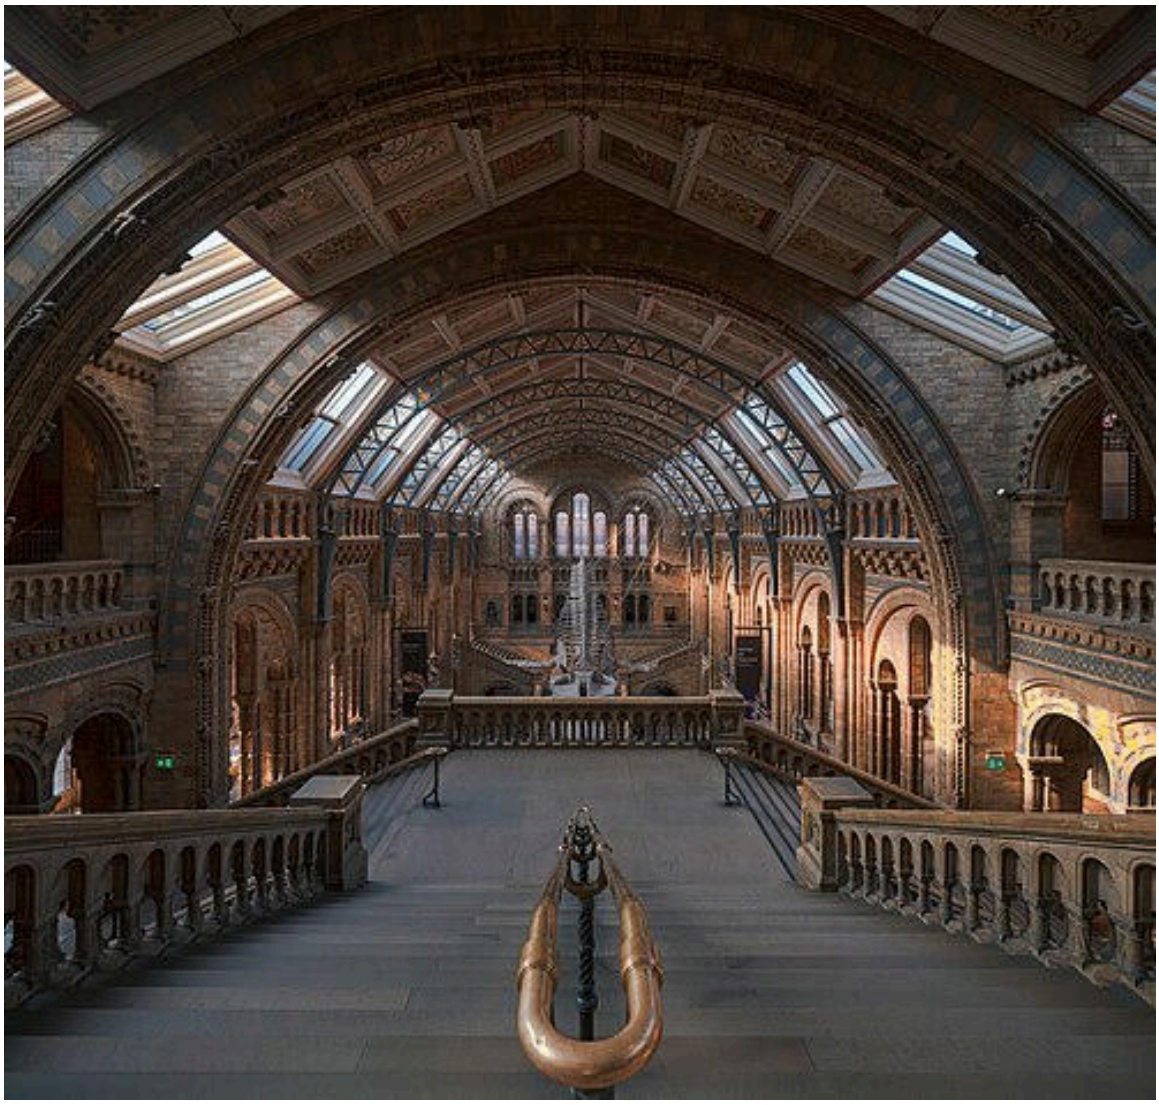

Figure 2: The empty Central Hall of the Natural History Museum, looking towards the blue whale skeleton Natural History Museum, Central Hall. Photo: Julian Herzog, CC BY 4.0, via Wikimedia Commons.

Figure 3: The tall brick chimney of the former Bankside Power Station, now Tate Modern

Tate Modern, the former Bankside Power Station. Photo: Diego Delso, CC BY-SA 4.0, via Wikimedia Commons.

Figure 4: The glass dome above the entrance hall of the National Gallery

National Gallery, entrance hall dome. Photo: Diego Delso, CC BY-SA 4.0, via Wikimedia Commons.

Figure 5: A turret and weathervane of the White Tower at the Tower of London

Tower of London, the White Tower. Photo: Dietmar Rabich, CC BY-SA 4.0, via Wikimedia Commons.

Sights at a glance

Photo	Sight	Area	Price band	Nearest tube	More
	British Museum	Bloomsbury	Free (special exhibitions extra)	Tottenham Court Road	Read more
	Natural History Museum	South Kensington	Free (special exhibitions extra)	South Kensington	Read more
	Tate Modern	Bankside	Free (special exhibitions extra)	Blackfriars	Read more
	National Gallery	Trafalgar Square	Free (special exhibitions extra)	Charing Cross	Read more
	Tower of London	Tower Hill	Paid ticket	Tower Hill	Read more

Photo credits: British Museum, Mike Peel, CC BY-SA 4.0; Natural History Museum, Julian Herzog, CC BY 4.0; Tate Modern and National Gallery, Diego Delso, CC BY-SA 4.0; Tower of London, Dietmar Rabich, CC BY-SA 4.0. All via Wikimedia Commons; details in `images/ATTRIBUTION.md`.

Visitor numbers

```
import csv

with open("data/attractions.csv", newline="", encoding="utf-8") as f:
    rows = list(csv.DictReader(f))

top = max(rows, key=lambda r: int(r["visits_2025"]))
top_name = top["attraction"] top_visits = int(top["visits_2025"])
total_visits = sum(int(r["visits_2025"]) for r in rows)
```

The most visited attraction in 2025 was the Natural History Museum (South Kensington), with 7,116,929 visits, out of 39,692,434 visits in total across the ten attractions listed.

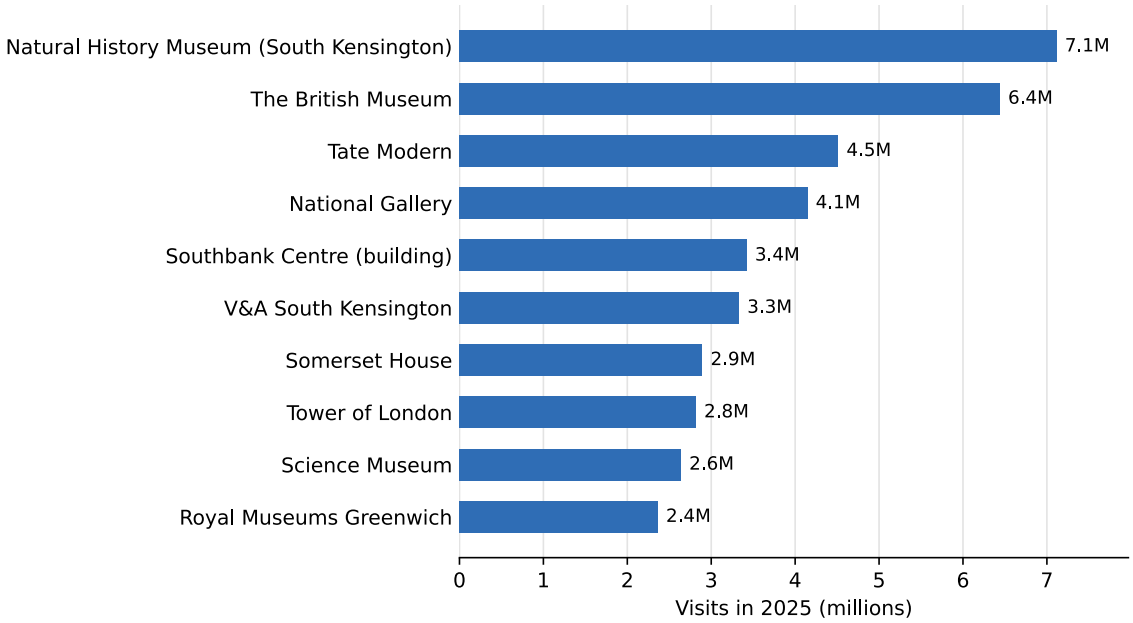

Figure 6: Visits in 2025 to London's ten most-visited ALVA attractions. Source: ALVA.

Getting around

- 🚇 Tube
- 🚌 Bus
- 🚲 Santander Cycles

Plan your visit

Use the TfL Journey Planner to map out each day's route by Tube, bus or bike.

Figure 7: Big Ben and the Elizabeth Tower rising against a bright sky, with the Palace of Westminster below

Big Ben in the sun (Elizabeth Tower). Photo: John Dillenbeck, CC0, via Wikimedia Commons.

> Tip from a local: Stand on the right on Tube escalators and leave the left side clear for people in a hurry.

Before you go

```
[ ] Check opening times and book any timed tickets
[ ] Bring a contactless card or Oyster for the Tube and buses
[ ] Pack a light waterproof jacket
```